Feature: Forgot Password

Scenario: Input valid email and characters
        Given user is on log in page
        When user click on forgot password
        And user fill the valid email on email textbox
        And user fill the characters match with the image
        And user click continue button
        Then user is navigated to password assistance page

Scenario: Input invalid email and valid characters
        Given user is on log in page
        When user click on forgot password
        But user fill the invalid email on email textbox
        And user fill the characters that match with the image
        And user click continue button
        Then user will see an error message

Scenario: Input valid email and invalid characters
        Given user is on log in page
        When user click on forgot password
        And user fill the valid email on email textbox
        But user fill the characters that did not match with the image
        And user click continue button
        Then user will see an error message

Scenario: Input valid email and did not input characters
        Given user is on log in page
        When user click on forgot password
        And user fill the valid email on email textbox
        But user did not fill the characters
        And user click continue button
        Then user will see an error message

Scenario: Input valid characters but did not input email
        Given user is on log in page
        When user click on forgot password
        But user did not fill the email on email textbox
        And user fill the characters that match with the image
        And user click continue button
        Then user will see an error message

Scenario: User did not fill all the textbox
        Given user is on log in page
        When user click on forgot password
        And user click continue button
        Then user will see an error